Credentials for forthcoming elections of members of human rights treaty bodies

The Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights wishes to remind all States parties to the international human rights treaties that the rules of procedure of all meetings of States parties convened to elect members of human rights treaty bodies require delegations to submit credentials to the Secretary-General prior to a meeting. Many delegations fail to provide such credentials in advance of a meeting and the Secretariat continues to receive numerous obsolete credentials many months after the meetings have concluded. In order to assist delegations with ensuring the timely submission of credentials, advance notice is given of the following meetings of States parties in 2012:

Thirty-second Meeting of States Parties to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (6 September 2012);

Conference of States Parties to the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (12–14 September 2012); and Fourteenth Meeting of States Parties to the Convention on the Rights of the Child (18 December 2012).

All States parties are kindly requested to put in place the necessary arrangements to ensure that credentials for each of these meetings are submitted no later than one week before the meeting, in order to ensure the smooth running of the elections. Delegations are reminded that the credentials of representatives and the names of members of the delegation must be issued by the Head of State or Government or by the Minister for Foreign Affairs. Credentials for the Conference of States Parties to the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities should be sent to the secretariat of the Conference in the Department of Economic and Social Affairs. Credentials for all other meetings should be sent to OHCHR in New York. For any clarifications, please contact Mr. James Turpin, OHCHR (e-mail turpin@un.org; tel. 1 (917) 367-3292; room DC1-504).

Kindly take note that all elections for the Committee on Economic Social and Cultural Rights, are organized by the secretariat of the Economic and Social Council, not by OHCHR. All queries related to these elections should be addressed to Ms. Celia Syyp, Economic and Social Affairs Branch, Department for General Assembly and Conference Management (DGACM) (e-mail syyp@un.org; tel. 1 (212) 963-0906).

Please note also that OHCHR is not responsible for the Human Rights Council elections. Queries related to these elections should be addressed to Ms. Mary Muturi, General Assembly Affairs Branch, DGACM (e-mail muturi@un.org; tel. 1 (212) 963-2337).

The Council continued its consideration of the sub-items.

Panel discussion on "Learning by doing: Lessons from the 'delivering-as-one' initiative"

Session 1: "Findings from the independent evaluation of 'delivering-as-one'"

The Council held a panel discussion moderated by the Vice-President of the Council, H.E. Mr. Desra Percaya (Indonesia). The panellists were Ms. Liliam Flores, Chair of the Evaluation Management Group; Mr. István Posta, Member of the Evaluation Management Group (Joint Inspection Unit); and Ms. Belén Sanz, Member of the Evaluation Management Group (United Nations Evaluation Group).

Following statements by the panellists, an interactive debate ensued, during which interventions were made by the representatives of Mexico, Canada, Indonesia, the Russian Federation, the Philippines and the United States, as well as by the observers for Mozambique and Morocco.

The panellists responded to the comments made and questions raised during the interactive debate.

Session 2: "Achievements and remaining challenges for 'delivering-as-one': Messages from Tirana and Montevideo"

The Council held a panel discussion moderated by the Vice-President of the Council, H.E. Mr. Desra Percaya (Indonesia). The panellists were Mr. Gazmend Turdi, Secretary-General, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Albania; and H.E. Mr. Diego Cánepa, Deputy Secretary of the Office of the President, President of the Uruguayan Agency of International Cooperation, Chair of the Fourth Intergovernmental Conference on Delivering-as-One (November 2011, Montevideo, Uruguay).

Following statements by the panellists, an interactive debate ensued, during which interventions were made by the representatives of Australia, Indonesia and Germany, as well as by the observers for Morocco and Norway.

The panellists responded to the comments made and questions raised during the interactive debate.

A statement was made by the Director of the Office for Economic and Social Council Support and Coordination, Department of Economic and Social Affairs (DESA).

Communications to the President of the Security Council

Communications addressed to the President of the Security Council should be delivered to the Offices of the Security Council Secretariat Branch (room 08083, 730 Third Avenue (between 45th and 46th Streets); tel. 1 (212) 963-5258).

Web site of the presidency

The Web site of the presidency of the Security Council can be visited at www.un.org/sc/presidency.asp.

Recorded information

Recorded information about previously unscheduled meetings and consultations of the whole of the Security Council may be obtained by calling 1 (212) 963-8530, or by clicking on "Daily Programme" on the Web site of the Security Council www.un.org/Docs/sc.

Prepared statements

Speakers in the Security Council are advised that providing in advance copies of prepared statements which they intend to read out in the Council greatly facilitates the work of the Secretariat by permitting a sufficient number of copies to be distributed to all meeting participants and by assisting interpreters, verbatim reporters and press officers in maintaining the quality of the product delivered. Both interpretations and verbatim records rely upon the statement actually delivered, but copies of texts help interpreters to correctly render details and nuances and help verbatim reporters to produce the written record more quickly. Speakers are therefore encouraged, whenever possible, to provide copies of their statements, as early as possible in advance of delivery, to the Conference Officer in the Chamber.

Delegations are kindly requested to make 40 copies for minimum distribution to Council members and relevant services, and 200 additional copies for general distribution in the Security Council Chamber.

Delegations wishing to make statements available for the media are kindly requested to deliver 50 copies to the Media Documents Centre (e-mail mdc@un.org; tel. 1 (212) 963-7166; room SA-1B12).
